

Terms and Conditions

Please read this carefully because it sets out the terms and conditions (“Terms”) of a legally binding agreement between you and Web Financial Group SA, its successors, subsidiaries and its affiliates and assigns (“Web Financial Group”). Digital Look is a wholly owned subsidiary of Web Financial Group.

This page sets out the terms and conditions on which you may use this website and the content/services available on them containing, besides others, financial information, data, news and analysis (which we call “Content”). In these terms we use the term “Website” to refer to websites and other digital supports like mobile apps on which the Content is made available, with the Terms governing your access to and use of the Website on all platforms, whether accessed via web browser, mobile device, non-browser application, or e-mail or others. “You” and “your” refer to you as the user of the Website.

Web Financial Group may update these Terms for legal or regulatory reasons, or to reflect changes in our services or business practices. You should regularly check the Terms to see if any changes have been made. Any changes will become effective as soon as we post them on the Website. We may in exceptional circumstances cease to publish the Website or all part of the Content.

By using this Content you are indicating your agreement to be bound by these Terms. If you do not agree to be bound by these Terms, you may not access or use the Website. We only make these terms and conditions available in the English language.

The Content is only for your general information and use and is not intended to address your individual requirements. The Content does not constitute any form of advice, recommendation or arrangement by Web Financial Group, its clients and its partners and is not intended to be relied upon by you in making (or refraining from making) any specific investment or other decisions. Appropriate independent advice should be obtained before making any such decision. You acknowledge and agree that you bear responsibility for your own investment research and investment decisions, and that Web Financial Group shall not be held liable by you or any others for any decision made or action taken by you or others based upon reliance on or use of information or materials obtained or accessed through use of the Content. Investors should be aware that prices may fall as well as rise and that the income derived can go down as well as up. When buying or selling any investment that fluctuates in price or value you may get back less than you invested. Past performance is not necessarily a guide to future performance.

Any arrangements made between you and any third party named in this Content are at your sole risk and responsibility.

The Content is protected by copyright, trademarks and other intellectual property and proprietary rights. Republication or redistribution of the Content, including by caching, framing or similar means is expressly prohibited without the prior written consent of Web Financial Group. Although all reasonable effort has been made by Web Financial Group and its suppliers (listed in brief below) in collecting and maintaining the Content, neither Web Financial Group nor its suppliers give any warranties as to the accuracy, completeness, timeliness, integrity or fitness for purpose of the Content. Neither Web Financial Group nor its suppliers, if any, shall in any circumstances be liable whether in contract tort or otherwise for any consequential or indirect loss or damage or for any loss of profits or of contracts howsoever arising through negligence or otherwise and of whatsoever nature suffered or incurred directly or indirectly by you.

All information received by us from your use of the Website and the Content will be used by Web Financial Group in accordance with our privacy policy. You agree that all information you provide to register with the Website or otherwise, is governed by our privacy policy, and you consent to all actions we take with respect to your information consistent with our privacy policy. To access the Website or some of the Content, you may be asked to provide certain details or other information to become a registered user (“Registered User”). In case of registration, you must provide Web Financial Group with accurate, complete registration information and it is your responsibility to update and maintain changes to that information on the applicable registration pages. Web Financial Group is entitled to rely on any information you provide to us.

Each registration is for a single user only. On registration, you will choose a user name and password (“ID”). The email address that you provide on registration must correspond to a named email account and not a generic or shared email account. You are not allowed to share your ID or give access to the Content through your ID to anyone else. Web Financial Group does not allow multiple users on a network or within an organization to use the same ID. Web Financial Group may cancel or suspend your access to the registration-required areas of the Website if you share your ID without further obligation to you. You may not create additional registration accounts for the benefit of others or with the aim of avoiding our use of IDs to control access to and use of the Website.

You are responsible for all use of the Website made by you or anyone else using your ID and for preventing unauthorized use of your ID. We recommend that you do not select an obvious user password (such as your name) and that you change it regularly. If you provide Web Financial Group with an email address that will result in any messages Web Financial Group or its clients may send to you being sent to you via a network or device operated or owned by a third party (e.g. your employer or college) then you promise that you are entitled to receive those messages. You also agree that Web Financial Group or its clients may stop sending messages to you without notifying you. If you choose, or are provided with a user name, password, or any other piece of information as part of our security procedures, you must treat such information as confidential, and you must not disclose it to any other person or entity. You also acknowledge that your account is personal to you and agree not to provide any other person with access to the Website or portions of them using your user name, password, or other security information. If you believe there has been any breach of security such as the disclosure, theft or unauthorized use of your personal data, you must notify Web Financial Group immediately by e-mailing us at support@webfg.com.

We have the right to disable any user name, password, or other identifier, whether chosen by you or provided by us, at any time if, in our opinion, you have violated any provision of these Terms.

If you are a registered user to the Website, then you may choose to use the “Remember me” log in feature that enables you to be logged in automatically to the Website whenever you visit the Website without having to manually log in each time. We recommend that you do not enable this feature on any computer that is or may be used by anyone other than you in order to prevent unauthorized access by third parties to both your registration details and features of the Website personal to you.

The Website may include content provided by third parties, including materials provided by other users, bloggers, and third-party licensors, syndicators, aggregators, and/or reporting services. All statements and/or opinions expressed in these materials, and all articles and responses to questions and other content, other than the content provided by Web Financial Group, are solely the opinions and the responsibility of the person or entity providing those materials. Such materials do not necessarily reflect the opinion of Web Financial Group. We are not responsible, or liable to you or any third party, for the content or accuracy of any materials provided by any third parties.

The Website may contain links to other digital supports like Internet websites or online and mobile services provided by independent third parties, including websites of advertisers and sponsors (what we call “Third Party Sites”), either directly or through frames. It is your decision whether you purchase or use any third party products or services made available on or via Third Party Sites. Our Privacy Policy does not apply to Third Party Sites.

The Website may contain advertising and sponsorship. Advertisers and sponsors are responsible for ensuring that material submitted for inclusion on the Website complies with international and national law. Web Financial Group is not responsible for any error or inaccuracy in advertising or sponsorship material.

Copyright in any software that is made available for download from the Website belongs to Web Financial Group, its clients or its suppliers. Your use of the software is governed by the terms of any license agreement that may accompany or be included with the software. Do not install or use any of this software unless you agree to such license agreement. Web Financial Group is not responsible for any technical or other issues that may happen if you download third party software.

The following is important and you should read it carefully. It makes clear to what extent, if any, Web Financial Group, its clients and its suppliers accept responsibility (liability) to you for your use of the Website or the Content or in respect of any third party products or services that we refer to or link to on the Website.

Web Financial Group, its clients and its suppliers do not accept any financial responsibility to you arising from your use of the Website or the Content. In no circumstances do we accept responsibility for your use of Third Party Sites or in respect of any Third Party Products. By Third Party Sites we mean digital supports like Internet websites, online or mobile services provided by third parties, including websites of advertisers and sponsors that may appear on the Website. By Third Party Products we mean products or services provided by third parties.

Although this means that we accept very little in the way of financial responsibility for your use of the Website and the Content, we think this is fair on the basis that you can view content and services free-of-charge. It is not commercially possible for us to accept more responsibility for your use of the Website than set out in these Terms taking into account that we permit you to use the Website for no cost.

Limitations of the Content:

The Content (including any information we publish regarding Third Party Products) is only for your general information and entertainment purposes and is not intended to address your particular requirements. In particular, the Content, including UGC and any other content provided by third parties and distributed by the Website, does not constitute any form of advice, recommendation, representation, endorsement or arrangement by Web Financial Group, its clients or its suppliers. It is not intended to be and should not be relied upon by users in making (or refraining from making) any specific investment, purchase, sale or other decisions. Appropriate independent advice should be obtained before making any such decision, such as from a qualified financial adviser.

You acknowledge and agree that you bear responsibility for your own investment research and investment decisions, and that Web Financial Group, its clients and its suppliers shall not be held liable by you or any others for any decision made or action taken by you or others based upon reliance on or use of information or materials obtained or accessed through use of the Content. Investors should be aware that prices may fall as well as rise and that the income derived can go down as well as up. When buying or selling any investment that fluctuates in price or value you may get back less than you invested. Past performance is not necessarily a guide to future performance.

Any agreements, transactions or other arrangements made between you and any third party named on (or linked to from) the Website are at your own responsibility and entered into at your own risk. Any information that you receive via the Website, whether or not it is classified as "realtime", may have stopped being current by the time it reaches you. Share price information may be rounded up/down and therefore may not be entirely accurate.
